Black History Month

19th-23rd October 2020

Post-box competition

Create your own black post-box to honour a famous Black British person who inspires you.

You could make the post-box out of a cardboard box or design it on paper.

On your post box you should include:

The name of the person who inspires you
Information about their life and achievements

The reasons why they are an inspiration to you.

Please bring your post-boxes into school by Friday
23rd October

As part of the Black History Month celebrations the Royal Mail are painting four post-boxes black to honour inspirational Black British people.

People who you might write about: Benjamin Zepaniah, John Barnes, Marcus Rashford, Mo Farah, Idras Elba, Deli Ali, Alex Scott, Alisha Dixon, Maggie Aderin-Pocock, Nicole Adams.
